The jury found that the mother, Mary Halli-sey, (who lives as a servant in Mr. Talty's tamily,) was delivered by herself of a male child on the 30th day of April, which she wrapped up and deposited under some sods in the yard; and from the evidence of Dr. E. Observant.—It is with profound regret that we have to record the death of another of our eldest and most respected citizens. On the 1st instant about 4 o'clock, REZIN ORME, well known for many years throughout our community, as eminently fulfilling all the obligations which bind man to his fellow beings, departed this life. In every position of business Mr. Orme was remarkable for his faithful perfermance of the ebligation devolved upon him. Upright, honest, and concientious, he pursued his course without estentation, being naturally, peculiary delicate and unobtrusive. For the last fifteen years such has been the state of his health as to remove him from general intercourse, but the few old friends with whom he associated, manifested to the last, the high estimation in which he was held. His remains will be carried to the Ninth steet Methodist Protestant Church. As a husband, his tenderness and tant Church.
